

Curriculum Vitae

Sara Marchetta

The current position of Sara Marchetta is resident partner, in Chiomenti Studio Legale, Beijing Office. Sara is a member of the Italy Bar of Lawyers and, before the degree in Italian law (2002), graduated also in Chinese language and literature (1994), besides having learned Chinese law at Peking University (1994-1998). She is also the Vice-President of the China-Italy Chamber of Commerce.

Her practice areas include corporate, contract and intellectual property law, with a strong focus on FDI in highly regulated sectors (including infrastructure). Sara has advised clients in the steel and components sectors (including supply of turn-key equipment for steel production, mining operations and nuclear plants), in the publishing and fashion and retail sectors.