

Curriculum Vitae

Davide Follador

After cooperating with major Intellectual Property law firms in Italy, Davide Follador is currently in charge of the China Desk of Franzosi, Dal Negro and Setti Law Firm, based in Beijing. Follador specialises in Chinese intellectual property law and commercial law. He is a frequent speaker and tutor on the topic of IPR in China and has 10 years' experience in dealing with out-of-court proceedings and court litigation. He gives legal advice to both Italian and international companies about patents, trademarks, geographical indications, copyright, unfair competition, licensing and online IPR.